

- More than 43 million Americans struggle with mental illness.
- Most Americans lack access to adequate mental health treatment. 56% of American adults with mental illness did not receive care in the last year.

- 1 in 5 young people (age 13-18) has or will develop a mental illness in their lifetime.
- Depression is the leading cause of disability worldwide.